My dear Mr. Roe -

I have received your very kind letter and given to Mr. Swift the Enclure. I am afraid that I should find difficulty in getting members of my undergraduate class to visit the Museum.

Personally I want very much to come, and shall endeavor to do so at Thanksgiving time when I shall be in New York visiting an archaeologist. I hope that both of us can arrange to see the collection while you are there.

I am glad you have picked Princeton and hope that Dean West will act very favorably on your application.

Yours truly

B. W. Elderton

Dear Dr. Elserkin:

It gave me great pleasure to learn that we shall have the prospect of seeing you during the Thanksgiving holiday.

If it is possible for you to plan definitely when you will come, I should be glad if you would let me know. I do not want anything to interfere with my seeing you here - hence, my desire to be certain of when to expect you.

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary

Dear Professor Elderkin:

May I remind you that you were going to send us the name of the American gentleman in Cyprus
who has been forming a collection of coins there,
when you hadann opportunity to look it up.

Very cordially yours,

Secretary

Dear Professor Elderkin:

Thank you for your letter. Of course, we cannot be sure that anything will be accomplished by opening a contact with this man - but, at least, we can try! And certainly if Mr. Newell ever went to Cyprus, he would be a valuable friend. We appreciate your aid.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary

Dear Professor Elderkin:

Under separate cover I am sending you a copy of my recently completed Bibliography of Greek Coin Hoards. An additional copy has gone to Professor Heffner of the University of Pennsylvania, but I thought you might care to have this for your own use or for the Library.

Of course, it is not intended to be readable but it should prove useful to anyone working with Greek coins.

With cordial regards, I am

Very sincerely yours

Dear Professor Elderkin:

Thank you for your reference.
I do not remember having seen it and shall be glad to look it up. You were very good to have sent it to me.

Happy New Year to you and yours.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Professor Elderkin:

If you have any doubts as to the best person for reviewing the recent monograph on the 'Colts' of Ambracia, might I suggest that you ask Professor Bellenger of Yale if he would care to do it. My reason for this suggestion. My reason for this suggestion is that he has given some study to this field and is therefore better equipped than most for evaluating Ravel's book. He already has a copy and would not need to have another sent him.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
